

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 19, 2015

Kick back and take in the thoughtful melodies of Kat and Tony with the 2015 Envision Financial Coffee House Concert Series finale

Abbotsford, BC— On October 24, take a break from your weekend routine and head over to SippChai Café (11-31205 Maclure Rd.) from 7:30 – 9:30 p.m. to treat your ears to the musical stylings of Kat and Tony.

Duo, Kat Wahamaa and Tony Rees, have a natural ability to fashion timeless tunes, bringing to mind everything from Memphis Minnie and Kansas Joe to Dan Hicks and His Hot Licks. Their original and old-time jazzy blues and country sensibility offer up thoughtful music for all folks.

This charismatic pair have numerous recordings in release and have performed at a full range of events encompassing festivals, roadhouses and concert hall venues throughout Canada, Japan, the United Kingdom and the United States. Kat and Tony are excited to once again share their talent with Abbotsford audiences.

This concert is also a Full Cupboard night. Please support the local food bank by bringing non-perishable food items or a cash donation with you. The Full Cupboard is a community program designed to raise funds, and awareness for local food banks in communities where Envision Financial operates.

The Envision Financial Coffee House Concert Series invites you to turn up the music one last time with this final performance of 2015. For more information, please visit the Abbotsford Arts Council's website at abbotsfordartscouncil.org.
